

Connecting With Nature...

I love nature because its genuine and authentic. I don't always know my natural, genuine, authentic self. But if I were to connect with "me" I think I might find this person to be...

And _____

to be...

And _____

A Little Something To Know...

We all have a wild-nature-spirit-of-the-woods-self living in our authentic being. Its who we are when we feel the trees whisper to us and feel the water call to us. We hear the fire speak and the sky sigh. We are as authentic and genuine in spirit as nature's elements. Let that part of you speak. They have something powerful to say.
