

Mysteries...

I am in constant state of discovering who I really am. So I ask myself to solve my own great mysteries...

What would I know if I weren't afraid to know it?

Who would I be if I weren't afraid to be the real me?

What would I say if I weren't afraid to say it?

A Little Something To Know...

Often the biggest mysteries we will ever come across is discerning all of our unique pieces. As in solving any mystery, it all starts with good investigation. Ask your these meaningful questions. You may be surprised at what your genuine and authentic answers are.

©2023 www.enchantedperspectives.com

